

Ramesh Gobindram Mahtani has a Job Vacancy

Position: Caregiver

Job Duties and Summary::

Works in a private household and assist with the daily operations of the household and personal care and hygiene of the person who needs medical attention due to a medical condition that requires care for the intake of medication on time and meals to be consumed on time.

Job Skills and Responsibilities:

- Helps with the daily intake of prescribed medication;
- Assist with the making of medical appointment for scheduled checkups and a companion to medical visits;
- Assist with personal care and hygiene making sure areas are always cleaned and sanitized;
- Plan meals to be consumed as prescribed by the medical practitioner as medical condition requires on time intake of meals after medication;
- Performs light household duties (washing, cooking, ironing folding moping and sweeping) when so required;
- Having a pleasant personality, be supportive, honest, trustworthy, self motivated and on time;
- Be alert and responsive should a medical situation arise;
- Visits the pharmacy when needed for refills of prescribed medications;
- Keeps accurate time of medication intake and how often;
- Assists with grocery shopping for the preparation of the meals.

Job Requirements and Qualifications:

- Physical endurance and fit as lifting over 50 pounds might be required;
- Respectful and reliable;
- Ability to read medical prescription and administers as such;
- Ability to work overtime, weekends and holidays if requested;
- Clean police record;
- Ability to prepare different Indian meals for person with special medical needs;
- Secondary education or equivalent;
- Ability to communicate in the Indian language both written and oral any other language a plus.

Suitable candidates should send a copy of their resume and certificates to the Department of Social Welfare and labor located at the Soualiga Road # 1, Pond Island, Philipsburg, St. Maarten.